

Austrian optical cable supplier

Article Overview

Key Austrian manufacturers of fiber optic and active optical cables include PENGG KABEL, Geba Cables, FTTP GmbH, and specialized service providers like öGIG and CableRunner International.

Leading Manufacturers

PENGK KABEL GmbH is a full-service provider producing both copper and fiber optic cables at two Austrian production sites. They offer customized fiber optic solutions, including passive components for telecommunications and rail industries, as well as mounting and installation services, making them a versatile partner for active optical cable projects (PENGK KABEL) . Geba Cables has over four decades of experience in high-performance cable manufacturing. They focus on durable and reliable solutions suitable for advanced fiber optic applications, emphasizing innovation and sustainability (Geba Cables) . FTTP GmbH specializes in turnkey fiber optic network construction, using innovative trenchless installation methods to deploy fiber optic cables efficiently through existing infrastructure. Their solutions support municipalities and private clients in achieving high-speed internet access with minimal environmental impact (FTTP GmbH) .

Telecommunications and Network Service Providers

öGIG designs and operates Fiber to the Home (FTTH) networks, providing high-performance 100% fiber internet connections to underserved Austrian communities. Their focus on sustainable investment aligns with national digital infrastructure goals (öGIG) . CableRunner International deploys urban fiber optic networks using intellig...
