

Bangladesh quote for 200G SD-WAN equipment

Article Overview

Exact pricing for 200G SD-WAN equipment in Bangladesh varies by vendor, configuration, and service level, typically requiring direct consultation with local providers.

Local Vendors and Providers

In Bangladesh, several IT network providers offer SD-WAN solutions, including Connected Networks, which provides SD-WAN, SASE, and Bandwidth On Demand services across Dhaka, Chittagong, Khulna, and Rajshahi . They specialize in tailored IT networks, global connectivity, redundancy circuits, and cloud integration, making them a suitable point of contact for high-capacity 200G SD-WAN deployments. Other local suppliers, such as Star Tech, list networking devices including routers, switches, and access points, which may include SD-WAN-capable hardware . For enterprise-grade 200G SD-WAN, direct inquiry is recommended to confirm availability and pricing.

Factors Affecting SD-WAN Costs

Pricing for SD-WAN equipment and services depends on multiple factors :

- Bandwidth and Capacity: 200G SD-WAN is high-capacity, so hardware and licensing costs are higher than standard deployments.
- Number of Sites: Costs increase with the number of branch locations connected....
