

Hungarian Fire Cable Tray Price List

Article Overview

Fire-resistant cable tray prices in Hungary vary depending on material, size, and supplier, and are typically provided upon request.

Suppliers and Product Options

Several suppliers in Hungary offer fire-resistant cable trays:

- Basor Electric specializes in cable trays tested for fire resistance, ensuring critical electrical systems like emergency lighting, smoke extractors, and fire alarms remain functional during a fire. Their products comply with European and local fire safety standards, including circuit integrity tests under extreme conditions .
- Emtron KFT provides a wide range of cable tray systems for industrial and construction projects, including fire-resistant options, with technical support in multiple languages .
- Brilltech Engineers offers standard and customized cable trays in Hungary, including fire-resistant models, and emphasizes affordable pricing and industry-grade compliance .
- AVIUS.hu supplies GRP (glass-reinforced plastic) cable trays, which are corrosion-resistant and non-metallic, suitable for environments requiring electromagnetic transparency, though fire-resistance specifics should be confirmed with the supplier .

Pricing Considerations

- Prices for fire-resistant cable trays are not fixed and depend on factors such as tray material (metal vs. GRP), dimensions, load capacity, and fire rating duration....
