

Latvian optical cable suspension clamp manufacturer

Article Overview

Currently, there is no publicly listed Latvian manufacturer exclusively producing optical cable suspension clamps, but local suppliers like Installs can provide access to high-quality European and international products.

Local Supplier in Latvia

Installs is a well-established Latvian wholesaler of cable and electrical materials, offering a wide range of wires, cables, and related accessories from over 50 European and international manufacturers . While they may not manufacture suspension clamps themselves, they can supply high-quality optical cable suspension clamps suitable for ADSS, OPGW, and ABC cables, along with fast delivery and flexible service within Latvia and the Baltic region .

International Suspension Clamp Manufacturers

For specialized optical cable suspension clamps, several international manufacturers provide reliable products:

- OMC produces fiber suspension clamps designed for overhead optical cables, offering features like vibration resistance, uniform stress distribution, and high-quality aluminum alloy construction for durability and corrosion resistance .
- TTF Power manufactures suspension clamps for ADSS, OPGW, and ABC cables, made from aluminum alloy and galvanized steel, ensuring protection against vibrati...
