

Price of Finnish Fiber Optic Cable Box

Article Overview

Fiber optic cable boxes in Finland typically range from €50 to €300 depending on type, size, and features.

Overview of Fiber Optic Boxes in Finland

Fiber optic cable boxes, also known as splice boxes or terminal boxes, are used to terminate, extend, or branch fiber-optic cables. They are available for indoor and outdoor use, and can accommodate single or multimode fibers. Finnish suppliers such as Tietosähkö Oy manufacture and import boxes, offering both standard and custom solutions, including pre-assembled cables terminated with connectors, panels, or boxes .

Price Range

- Small indoor splice boxes: Typically start around €50–€80, suitable for home or small office installations .
- Medium to large wall-mounted or outdoor boxes: Prices range from €100–€200, depending on fiber capacity and weatherproofing .
- High-capacity or specialized boxes (industrial, military, or custom pre-assembled units): Can cost up to €300 or more, especially when including connectors, adapters, or panels . Prices generally exclude VAT and may vary based on supplier, delivery, and additional accessories such as adapters, couplers, or mounting hardware .
